HHB Family,

Himmelwright, Huguley and Boles, LLC's priority is the well-being of our clients, business partners, team, and community. During the coronavirus (COVID-19) period, we want to update our clients with how we are continuing to serve your needs.

Currently, our offices remain open. In the event of a quarantine order, our staff will continue working in a remote capacity. We encourage our clients to continue gathering their documents and sending them to us. We have an online portal that can be utilized by our clients to upload tax documents and e-file authorizations forms. If you would like to use our online portal and don't have one setup with us, please contact Ashley Winegarden (awinegarden@hhbfirm.com) or Codie Smith (csmith@hhbfirm.com) to assist in your set up.

The tax deadline for filing and payments has been extended to July 15, 2020. However, we recommend you send us your information as soon as possible. If you owe tax, you will have until July 15th to pay.

Payroll services are still being processed as usual. If you have any adjustments that need to be made during this period, be sure to contact your payroll specialist.

Please do not hesitate to reach out with questions or concerns. We hope that you and your family stay well.

Sincerely,
